Office - Opposite Bank, Up-Stairs

BRRES OF SUBSCRIPTION

If not paid within six months, $2.26 If not paid till expiration of the year 2.50

(a pener will be discontinued un

VOL. XXIII

ASHLAND, OHIO. WEDNESDAY MORNING,

Business Dire ctorp.

JUDICIAL OFFICERS. W. H. HIGEN, Common Pleas Judge.
T. C. BUSHNELL Probate Judge.
E. T. D. L.Y. CON., Cl'k Com., Pl's & Dist.

A D CURTIS, Prosecuting Attorney,

COUNTY OFFICERS.

& & CAMPBELL, Auditor Whatlast was best and Tres urer, L H KIPLINGER, Sheriff. ENEY PIEER, Surveyor, IGAN VAN NEST, W. G. GILLOWAL.

WM . CR . LG LES y Diretorn HOLGH BOHOOL EXAMINERS.

K M ZUVER Ashland.

BANKERS

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

IL LOTHER, Prest. J. O. JENNINGS, Cashler. Hathert Lath r Jacob trall, G. H. Top ping, J. O. Jennings. James Purdy Joan money receive apposits, buy and pail toda or United States Bonds, remit maney to any part of the United States, and also to Engined. Freined, Scotland and Germany Sell Revenue Stamps—in sums of $40 at 2 1 2 per cent discount.

CITIZENS BANK J. D. Cowan, Prest. A. H. MYRES, Cosh'r. L. S. BAUMGARDNER, Deslers in Gold. Silver, Exchaige, U. S. A: Discount approved paper, pay inter-Miller's mon h. Banking Bulines. Bonds, Uneurent mousy, Revenue Stamps 67. R A

HOTELS.

MILLER HOUSE. Horth side sain Stree , tehland Ohio, M. Miller. Pruprietor Good accommoda

MCMULLY HOUSE. Surest, Ashland, Ohio

LAWYERS

R. M. CAMPBELL, Atterney at Law, Ashlanu, Obio, will at-Louis promptly to all toget hardness con-mal to his care. Bankrapa cases in U. Cours will receive special attention.

Attorney at Law. Ashlana, Ohio A'l kinds of business belonging to the profession promity atlended to. Office, opposite First National Bank, up stairs.

JOHN D. JONES.

MCCOMBS & CORTIS.

Atterney at Law, Ashland Particular at tention paid to collec ing and business in Probate court 1) fice on church street, be tween Main and Sandusky.

McCOMBS & CHRIIS, of all kinds, till and tosewood mention of all kinds, till a II S SEE. Attorney at Law Pire and Life Insurance Agent, and Notary Public Particular at-tentian paid to cottenting. P. obare busines-Partition cases and execution of deeds, margages and sonracts. Office in Miller's blick, second story, Main at cet, Ashlan I.

WM- N. BEER Alter ex at Law Ashland Obio.

Afterney at Law : office to S. ocum's Block deuren street, north of Post Office, Ash PHASICIANS.

OBURGE W HILL, M. D. The scien and Surgern, ashead, 1 thio Fartenher attention will be paid to the treatment of the following special diseases: Moneys and Scrofula

J. P. Cowan, M. D. T. S. Hunter, M. D. S O DRS COWAN & HUNTER. Having formed a copartner-hip for the practice of medicine will give particular at tention to surgery and the treatment of through discuss bank beconsulted on Wednesday and Saturday O. C. McCARTY, M. D.

Physician & Surge on Polk, 4 hio. Will pay special stiention to the treatment of chronic diseases, on Saturday of each delimine diseases, on Saturday of each A. E. FOLTZ, M. D.

Physicism and Surgeon, offers his pro Testional services to the officens of Ashland and vicinity Office on church street. formerly occupied by Clark & Hunter-Particular attention paid to chronic dis cases of all kinds telued and for Ment Markets.

G & J SAAL, Ruschers, and designs in fresh Beef, Pork.
West and Muton. Ment marke: South side stain st., three doors West of the Menuity House. om.

JOHN MILLER. Butcher, and dealer in Fresh M ats of all kinds, Oried Beef, and Bologus. Me market at his old stand basement of Milmage's Block opposite the Fown Hall, CARRIAGES.

D. S. SAMPSEL & CO, reprietors of the Leach Carriage Works Orange street, near Railway depot. The paid to roofing and spinting. Minfacturers of the Antomatic clothes Washer, 1 door east Miller House.

Sheet Iron ware Particular attention had no business to make paid to roofing and spinting. Minfacturers of the Antomatic clothes Washer, 1 door east Miller House.

H J TRAVER & CO., Proprieto f the Ashland Carriage Fac. Pashionable Barber and Hair Dre ser, hes street. A very large stock of the best made door West of the Citizens' Bank, where he work in the country, consisting of Car- will be pleased to see all who desire his parents, who petted her as though she riages, and wagons.

Religious services a e regularly held in he following Churches in thi place every Sabbath morning and evening Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of 4th and Church streets. Rev W II See ly, Paster Prayer meeting every Thurs-rresby erian Church, corner of 2d and hurch Streets. Rev. John Robinson, Prayer meering every Wednes

Lutheran C.nrch. between Church and Orange Streets Rev. 1 W Swick Pastor Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening Second Christia. Church, South Ash. land 'hapel. Rev S. E Cearre Pastor. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening. United Brethren Church, South Ashland hapel . Service every other Sabbath and o clock. P. M. Revs. McIntire and

German R form Church Sandusky st. Service regularly every and a d 4th Sun-day of each month. Rev Daniel Zim-merman Pastor German Sunday school every Sunday mornig

Catholic burch, Cottage street, Rev. Father J. Ruhn. Paster. Services every 3d Sunday in each month, at half pat nine o cock A ach

Hardware.

S. W & T. M BERRY Dealers in Hartware, Iron Nails, Glass, Curlety, Paints, Oils, Carpenter's Tool. Sash and Doors, Store one door East of 1st Nat. Bank

SAMPSEL & CO

Des ers in Hardware Cutlery Paints, Oils, Varrishes, Bent Stuff Sash, doors, Car penter's Tools, Sadlery, Iron, Nails, &c. Store one door East I he de Nalty House

Masonic. Stated meetings of Ashland Lodge No. 151 F. & A. M., held at Lodge room in Mil ler's Block on fridays, preceding the

JONAS STIVENS W M Stated meetings of Ashland Chapter No. Block, first Tue-day in each Clothing.

Z. GREENEWALD. Opposite Orange street. Wholesale and Remit dealer in Clothing, Gents Furnis ing Goods &c.

JACOB CAHN. Dealer in ready name : totting, Cloths. Cassimers Vatises. Umbrellas. Gents Furnish rg Goods, and unsuracturer of Mens (lothing. Store in Miller tiouse Blyck.

Photographers. J H Met'ORNICK Photographer, one door West of the Town linkl, takes as fine I hotographs as can be had ou side of he cities. All work known to the arr excess on the less style and warranted to please J II, KELL. I hotographer, Ail kinds of work done from a curd to life size. Particulars t tention paid to entarging Ar I rotypesand I hotographs Rooms two doors East of Cabinet Ware.

ASHLAND FURNITURE ROOMS H. M HICKOK AGENT. Manufacturers and Denters in Furniture of all kinds, tilt and Rosewood mondings

Hearse always ready Shop on 3d street Ware-room in Bushnell's Block, second tory. C F. & C EPPLER. Manufacturers of and deaters in Cabine Furniture and thairs. A first clas stock always on hand at their Ware Rooms outh side of Main street, east of the Times fflee.

DRUGGISTS.

J. H. BARBON FOL Z & BARRON.

Dealers in Urugs, Chemicals, Paints, Oil-Varnishes, Dye Stuffs. Puent Medicines. Pertumery Druggists' ancy Goods. Books, Stationery & Wall Paper. Main Street, Ashland, Ohio

J, R SQUIRE. cary Dealer in Drug-, Medicines, No tions, and manu acturer of squire's cell-

Gin. Store on Main st. PANCO OT & SON. Oruggists and dealers in Pertumery, No-ions, Wall Paper, &c., Main street, Ash tand Ohio.

Restaurants. CHARLES KNOTH, Lunch, Hot Coffee, Choice Meats, Oyster ies. Cakes, Ice Cream and Soda Water ind the luxuries of the sea-on always Sells no intoxicating drinks Fes tou ant South side of Main street West

JACOB WEISENSTEIN. Saloon, Lu ch. Pies, Cakes, Crackers Cheese, Native Wines Also, a photostock of Family Groceries. Cheap Store and Lunch rooms North side of Main gt.

East of Bushpell's Block. FREDERICK BOCKLEY, sloon, and dealer in Family Grocerie and Provisions, and Nations Fresh sto k and chaip Store North side of Main street Miscellancous.

ewellers and Silversmiths, three door west of Miller House. A hland Gold and Silver Pens. and a choice variety of Jew elry kept constantly on hand. Highest price pair for old gold and silver Repair. ing done to order and on reasonable terms

FRAZEE & REBMAN. Dealers in Groceries . Provisions. Crockery Glassware. Wood and Willow wire, Salt Fish, Butter and 1 ggs, and country pro duce generally Old Stone Corner, cor'

Dealers in Stoves, Tin. Copper. Bras: and Sheet Iron ware Particular aftention paid to roofing and spinting. Manfactur-

GEORGE LOGAN.

CHARLES & STULL. Dealers in and Manusacturers of Boots, &c. A good stock always bn hand, Store north side main street, east of Bushnell's

DAVID BRYTE Cooper, near Rector's Mill, South Ash-

N. RECTOR & SON, Proprietors of the Ashland Mills, manufact turers of Choice Family Flour and Feed suffs.—The Best place in Ashlana to sell your grain. Mills on Contre street.

ted Clover Hu lers and Threshers, the best in he world They thresh, hull and clean from 15 to 75 sushels per day. Factory be low Brapper's

S. W. BLACK. Baker and Confectioner, Dealer it choice family Groceries, Flours, provisions, Fruits, Nortons.&c . Bread Crackers, F bey and Ornamental 'ake- and Candies, at whole sale and retail Main st., Ashland, O.

THE "RADICAL."

Thou peerless saint, of modern school Firm to the "progress party" wed-Thou keeper of the golden rule, To jeer and curse the "Copperhee To him that bath, to him be given, Means, place and plunder unto thee

The Copperhead majority. Thou chosen child, as thou dost say, That faithful worships God

To cheat and rob by right of Heaven,

Thou pilgrim of the narrow way. A little leeward of the right; Thou didst not enter by the door, But climbed'st up another way, Progress no pilgrim made before, No sloughs to cross, nor giants

Thank God that, not like other men The Copperheed majority, Thou strove a compromise to gain, And war's impending curse to flee; But thou wast loyal, and didst hiss

The war-hounds to the field of And damned the "Copperheads" re

That came not to the work of God And nobly didst emancipate Four millions with four million

And blest God at so cheap a rate-Great wrath was wreaked on South-And bravely from the battle's fray, Kept thy own body corporate, More pious 'ar to be at bay And cozen money from the state

Thy demi-gods are only two-Black Moloch and fair Mammor white; Spite made the unto Moloch true, But Mammon is the chief delight

To one gave mortgage on the race, The other mer gage on thy soul, Fee-simple of the pio s saint, Good God, good Devil, or to all

Thou holy son of holy sires, That erst in England slew the king and here with sacrificial fires, Gave witchcraft such a reckoning-

That burnt the Pequo Is in the flames, That banished Williams on a text At treason played alternate games, To King George first, at Hartford next.

Thou walkest in the way they trod, Loyal whenever purse agreed, Loyal to Mammon and to God,

The "slave" by pious theft was freed. The bonds will be redeemed in gold All knees shall bow at Moloch's shrine, "Rebels" shall writhe in woes un told -What comfort, holy saint is thine

Cheer then, though rebel to the race A holy son of progress stiff; Great Grant is marching on apace, To do the party's dirty will. But Hars !- the outraged millions cry And shouts of triumph rend the air

Lo! victory's banner's hung on high Decked unto Seymour and to Blair

Select Storp.

THE LAST TIME

BY MARY KYLE DALLAS. "Going out again, Will.?" she said outting her hand upon his arm, and hen her lips quiver d Ot comse it was Will's wife sroke She was just as retty, and just as good, and just as fascinating at ogether, as the girl Will, had courted three years before And she was near ly drassed, and hair her was as carefully rarra ged. There was no excuse for the alteration, which made the man who had thought no happiness so great as that of sifting beside little Lottle Hun ter, of walking with ber or singing with her, or being in any way in her society, fly from the presence now that she was Lotty Weed, the very moment he had swallowed his d nner. Purting it to Will as serious ques tion, he would not for worlds have ad muted that he was or ever could be tired of his wife, or that he did no love her. As for being a good hus band, why he paid the market bill, gave her pin money, and was willing she should do as she pleased in most things had no business to make a fuss if he

That was what he said ; and evening after evening Long shur up in her golden cage arone—she who had had so many sisters and brothers and so many where it was kept, and where the monadmirers once, and, best of all, kind ey was.

never be separated for a moment."

Mrs Weed was unhappy. not he p it Will, was just as much to And away he went, leaving Will her as when he wooed her A com bound to the post, and quive sober now. and blood?

pliment from him—now and then he He understood what he had done.

A lunation

Men who drank, Lotty thought, were poor bloated creatures, with red noses of the first hotels ; who would ever be suspected of being intemperate; who attend to business and only reel after midnight Women don't know much of these, and yet there are such hosts of them Merchants and professional men, and gentlemen of elegant leisure. men of miled and men of money, who are really given to the practice to an nsane degree Yes, it was the unhappy truth-the brilliant Will Weed from wife and prayed fireside, was the bottle To take a glass with this one, and that one, and the other one-to grow merry over it and find nore friends to treat, and by whom to be treated; to be introduced to a new friend, and flaunting, miserable woman-a creacrink because of that and to go on drinking until the way home was rather doubtful thing to manage, and the greatest stiffness and solemnity neces eary to prevent Lotty from discovering that he could neither walk nor talk straight-was Will Weed's evening wise, or suffer the imputation of mean ress. It this be true, no wonder that such gregarious occa ions as the de parture of a friend for Europe general ly eventuate in morning headrches. And on this evening when Lotty out her hand on his arm, and asked him if he was was going out again, such departure had taken place the evening before, and it had required mighty elocutionary efforts on his part, to say with proper dignity :

. Jood gracious? Lotty, why did you set up for me ?" " Bacious Lotty, whyaro-stupame being the original intention of his Therefore, Mr Weed was uncon menty indignant that Letty should ery about his going out" as though hwere to blame. Had she not her bale and her distaff - modernized eroches needles'-and why should she dread a ew hours' schude?

So he drew down his gloves, and buttoned them, and said : Really, you are very childish, Lotty, nd gave her a matter of course kis umn her cheek-about as much like he old kisses of 'courting time,' as dried cherries are like real ones, and en ked off. Mrs Finniken's spouse and the oth r side of the street, did the same But Mrs F had a certain good looking cousin, an old beau of hers, who fieled up such blanks in her life by ugreeable firtation; and she was not grieving. but at the moment singing sentimental ongp for the benefit of the cousts Lotty saw her-through her drop ped lace curtains - as she went in to er cradle and erochet work. But sh ad no such resourse, nor wished it Meanwhile Mr Weed found himself t the resort be patronized. The best fellows in the world werall there-every one of them-and Wil laughed and grew brilliant, unti midnight-and taughed and grewide otic, atterwards ; and it was one o clock before he singgered homeward ly tipsy this time, as any poor labore

It was the first time this had actually ome about. There is a fi st time ber everything. So, he stumbled through the streets ready to greet every lamp post as a boon companion, not at all particular about an in: reduction, when some our ver his fighting rum ever was clarged him on the shoulder, and cried : "Why, how are yer ?,' He sinck out his hand also, and said : ' Very glad to see you" an idea, hat it was an old triend; and then hooked arms and joyged on with ne of the most evil-looking ruffians he ever met with, complacently believing it to be some Brown, or Smith, or Tompkins of his acquaintance, who be gan by appropriating his watch and pocket book and a diamond seart pin

"Goin' home, are yer?" he asked

And Weed replied that he was, and confided to him street and number, and invited him to stay all night? Morrover, in the course of conversa ion, he intermed his friend that "Lety was the best girl in the world ;" that one servant having gone away, and the lingering for a chat be ore he went he struggled furiously, but to no pur with each other! All this stupendous prevent the election of a Democratic then wonder no longer, poor Christian, ory that, once married, 't' ey should may holler as much as yer please-no our senses and understanding the cause

did give her ope-brought just as And that wretch was going to his ion of the symbols of power, and it is will allow a seditious Congress, ruled pleased a light to her eye. Her love home -going to Lorry's home-and trampling down constitutions, laws, by a secret Committee of Fifteen, to had outlived the marriage ring, and she was all alone! He shricked! he principles, everything on which rests over throw the government of the she could not see why, it his had, he struggled, he raved—sll in vain—no our Republican institutions, in a blind, should not care as much for her socie thelp came. They were used to shricks sinful and utter y beassial effort to read to be feared a rival to the feared a rival Had she known the truth—had she lastened so tightly that his struggles millions of an inferior species of man | does, then there is but one course for York, showing the material from which guessed that her real rival was the but- only set his bound wrists bleeding, he kind in our nationality. It desires to the patriotic masses to pursue, which tle-she would have uffered more, but was forced to remain inactive while, give freedom to four millions of ne wil be to immediately reorganize the didates for the most important political and husky voices, and always out at all the old tenderness returned! how he blamed himself! L try-his pret tipplers whose resorts are the har-rooms ty Lotty slone with that horrible f. low. wight millions of Americans in the Again he vainly tore his firsh in his South, and if Grant is elected and is wild struggles. Again he shouted for Help!' Some one staguering by the he can only have peace by enslaving head of the alley laughed-that was all Eastened there-and that man free !

her screams! He would not be bound -he would be free! Alar, all in vain were his offers! temptation which dragged gentlemarly. he turned his eyes to Heaven and

> "Father belp me, help me to save And still there was no seeming an swer. voice, there came along the alley a ry truth. ture to shrink from in her filthy finery -one whose cheeks were rouged, and whose feet were slipshod. By the moonlight, Will, saw her. and in acony, cried to her for help She was had enough, Heaven knows! in her soul still.

At first she cursed him Then, as exterminated the white people? No, ly it was—and he obtained 7 30 bonds he mouned. Unbind me, for God's indeed; all the armics of Christendom and exchanged then for 5 20 bonds on such a point; that according to sake, my wife will be murdered !" she combined cannot preserve order, if this and wants the gold on them Of course American etiquette if forty gentleman came towards him. monstrous faction continues in power; the original debt was payable in curgo out together, and one offers refresh. "Who field you?" she asked with an nature will vindicate her outraged laws > doing you. No matter-here goes ". And with another oath, she took a penknife from her pocket, and cut the "G d bless you !" cried Will. And then the woman burst into tears -blessings were so rarely given her and Will would have willingly repaid her in some way, but she was gone in t might be to late. And horror let t wings to Mr Weed's er, and he sped away homeward. At the corner he found two police-Will uttered a mean, but the police and horrible chaos otherwise unavoida men urged silenor, and they crept in | ble. together. Up the stairs a mint tight | Work, then, brother Demogratsburnt, and it guid d them to the nur | work like men whose very salvation de smothered screaming They dashed dent all may be worked out pracefully pen the door, and beheld Letty Weed and the grand old Union of the fathers fied burglar, whom she had evidently overrupted in his depredations, sough o silence her screams by stuffing a cuch handkerchief into her mouth while in the other he grasped a pistal In an instant more, Will, had seixed is throat-and Lotty was savedhough the bullet meant for her heart, lodged itself in Will,'s arm.

Then followed some weeks, during wh ch Will. lay ill, and his wife nursed him. But recovery cums at last, and with it the turning of a new leaf Mr. eed confessed the truth to his wife, and registered a vow against til pling. which he did not forget The lesson ad been a terrible one, and he resolv ed never to lose his senses again, while he Lord permitted him to keep them So, shunning the places where drink ing was inevitable, he saw more of his home, and loved it betrer, and Lotty proving the same charming girl that he tell in love with, now that she was happy. he settled down into the most do mestic man entitled to vote in the United States, and so continues.

SEYMOUR AND RESTORA-TION-OR GRANT AND

Before another number of The Day-Book reaches i's subscribers, State elec tons will have taken place in Penn | convention of all the States, which are was illustrat d by the whore of Babysylvania, Ohio. Lediana and Iowa, and the only parties to the Federnal com lon Here is a man who dares declare as these must powerfully influence the pact Congress has no more right to himself God's vicegerent on earth; who onel F F. Williams, of Florida. He with succeeding Presidential election in No say who shall or who shall not vote in announces himself as a teacher of holy vember, we softmally appeal to our one of these States, than it has to say things; who proclaims himself, by the riends to do their u mo-t to win a vic-tery over the lunatic and horrible fac cause Congress has no more jurisdiction world, a lamp to guide the feet of the tion which if not over brown at the over thatters in the States, which were poor, conscience stricken sinner, a polls, must necessarily plunge the whole not delegated to the Federal Govern- guide to the stumbling seeker al er sal land in chaos and bloodshed. Demo- ment, than it has over the domestic vition; actually, and most blasphemouscrarie institution will outride the storm affairs of Great Britain. When there-ly, asking God said to continue in pow in about thirty minutes. Apoplexy will not prove an abortion, and perish before the history was fairly begun; Electoral College, it attempts a crime cursed a nation; a party that tramples of his body. His remains will be embalmed, and sent to georgia for inter--this great, young, vigorous people but never better, in the history of man- which would justly bring the punish- upon all laws, divine and human; a parkind, was any people so bland to their ment of death upon every officer of the ty made up, as its own records will ment — N. Y. Sun. Oct. 10th.

actual condition or seemingly so near record of the state of death upon every officer of the show, of thieves and accoundreds, whose overthrow and unter disinfegration, as a thin appropriate the property of these states are a disgrace. No voter should forget that are at this moment the people of these What a picy it is, that all the States not only all Christendom, but which wife's appon string torever, and Lotty she was home alone with the baby- States. In our half of the country, the are not in a condition to defend their have no parallel in all heathendom to foundations of social order are not only rights so that they could hang the day. Look at the record of rapes and United States Government to the other being absent on a visit to her torn down, but a standing army of six- scoundrels who should dare to inflict murders committed weekly by the profriends; and that she was lonesome; tythousand mercenary troops are us d to upon them the crimes of Congress! teges, black and white, of the party ty thousand mercenary troops are us d to proven the first of the party to the provent its restoration, while the laboring and the producting classes of the other counstances. Summer, Wade, Phillips, God's blessing upon; see the official No voter should forget half are load d down with debt and and a few dozen of such infamous ras- thieve monthly before the bar of justice; he votes the Radical ticket, he taxation greater then the most oppress- cals, were not the appointed officers to look into State Prisons, and make a votes to make accessible alike to

The wr-tch would stop at nothing of our race, to reverse the order of on And oh, how he leved her now! how ture, to imp ove the work of God and to g ve this imaginary and impossible free dom to negroes, it now really enslaves the masses of the North and the estab lishment of a military despotism ever He could picture Lotty, as her game fell the whole country. Neuro "treedom" is only possible to upon his bulks form He could hear famous epitaph for his country, "Here was once a great people who, in striv faithful to the faction that elects him

ing to give froodom to negroes, lost their own," simply predicted a necessa But can any one suppose that this great country can be ruled by a military despotism, or that an army of a million of men can preserve order with such materials-with four millions of perverted and debanched negroes, who, thus thrust into unnatural relations with But one trace of woman's nature was us, only the will of God when, as ment with cloth-whether it was shad in San Domingo and Jamsica, they dy or not I do not know, but very like to the Canada line This awful and bloody chaos towards which we are marching may be avoided by Seymour's election The far fetchd schemes to get rid of a national debt twenty years hence, has distracted un instant-rubbing away all traces of their gaze from the awful present, and, tears and rouge together on her showl perhaps still worse, the timid twaddle -and he could not linger. Even now, about the "Blair letter," and "recon structian," left to the Supreme Court has weakened the Seymour movement But the democracy must work as men n. ver worked before to defeat the mon. nen, and they accompanied him, and grel faction at the polls, and thus save arriving at his own door, it stood wide the fools and nedmen they oppose, as open The fellow had been there well as themselves, from the bloody ever since, which is half as much more sery. Within was a strapge sound of | pends on it, and if we elect our Presi tretched upon the floor, while the ter restored without the loss of another sacred American life

THE JOINT DISUNION RE-

sissippi and Louisiana, not having been reconstructed, are excluded by the count of electoral voices" And the editor of the Tribune seems to be oblivious of the fact that Congress has no States of the right of partie pating in the election of President, than it has to deprive any other three States of that right. The attempt of Congress to exercise original or undelegated powers, plause.) is as great a usurpation as it would be for a State to reiuse to allow the Fed-+12l Government to excute the powers which have been clearly delegated to it by the States Greater, indeed, because the State is one of the original Bible bangers. He preached a political owners of all the powers possessed by sermon at his Brooklyn Church on Sun can be lawfully dear with only by a into a lawer depth of depravity than fore, Congress undertakes to exclude | er on earth one of the most infamous, may holler as much as yer please—no perfice don't come here. Good bye, mister.

And away he went leaving Will bound to the post, and quie sober now.

And that wretch was going to his into of the symbols of power, and it is into chaos, and it is into chaos, and it is into chaos, and it is will allow a seditions. Congress, ruled into chaos, and it is will allow a seditions. Congress, ruled into chaos, and it is will allow a seditions. Congress, ruled into chaos, and it is will allow a seditions.

The Hon. Sanford E Church, in a thieving "niggers" that almost every speech at Brooklyn, N. Y, a few days northern village bas. He was at one, ago, thus speaks of Atkinson, the Rad-but was discharged for habitual drunk-But who is this Mr. Atkinson? He colored girl of this place, by the name comes from Boston That I should of Thompson, by whom he had a child. ical Munchausen : men or devils by white slavery—that is, have supposed. (Laughter) He is a He moved to Elmira, where he abandto force four millions of negroes into manufacturer. That I should have oned his wife and child and went to the legal status of white people, th y guessed. (Continued laughter) He Massachusetts; he colisted in the Fifty-And at last humbled and woe-stricken, must strike down the liberty of the says in his speech that the associations fourth Infantry (colored) and went to he turned his eyes to Heaven and latter, of necessity, and the South Car with which he was connected had seven the war; he was promoted to second glings who, some years ago, wrote that eral millions of dollars against the Gov sergeant, then to first serge at; was ernment on the 1st of April, 1865 .- wounded in some skirmish and came He says that that amount was after- back to this place, He teturned to, wards received in seven-thirty boulds; that those bonds were exchanged for five twenty bonds; and then he com ant. At the close of the war he return-plains of the Democratic party because ed to Massachusetts with his regiment, they won't pay him gold for those five. and was discharged and returned to twenty bonds. (Loud laughter and South Carolina, and is now nominated appliquee.) Now, I have heard of as a Grant and Colfax elector in the shoddy lefore, but this is a kind of First Congressional District of that sanctified shoddy. [Laughter] He State."-Day Bookmade a contract to furnish the Govern-monstrous taction continues in power; the original debt was payable in curthe conflict of races, notional bank | cratic party because they won't give ruptcy, and horror piled on horror, will him a profit of 40 per cent [Laugh sween over the land, wrapping it in a fer] Now I lok into this transaction mantle of fire and blood from the Gulf | a little, and I propose to give you the result of it, so far as Mr. Atkinson is concerned He says 'several millions' -I call that five millions, by way of illustration. If it is larger or smaller, he made twenty per cent upon the original contract Very likely he madfifry, but I assume he made twenty per cent. That is one million of dollars tor three years upon his bonds. That is nine hundred thou-and dollars in gold He has been exempted from taxation wants in ourrency seven millions of the Government. (Laughter and ap plause) In other words, he desires was appointed Secretary of the Treasthe people of the United States-and ary. This office be filled until Dec 10, he is very apury with the Democratic to pay him the nice little profit of his political fortunes to those of his nafour mi lions eight buildred and ninety thousand dollars on the debt of five ceded from the Union Early in 1861. joint resolution of Congress from the millions which he had three years ago against the Government. (Cheets) C ngress, and upon the convening of That is the man who makes a defense that body in Montgomery, Alabama, in for the Radical party. He is the demore right to deprive those three fender whom they see pt as their ing officer. A year later he resigned chosen representative in this campaign

dering the pecple's money. (Ap

for the defense against the charges which are made against them of squan-

Rev. O. B. Frothingham. This clerical individual comes under the category of the Grant and Colfax the General Government, and is, there day, and stated that the election of fore, a party to the compact of the Grant and Collax was of immense im-Dulen, The Federal Government is portance at this time, and his prayers sions, and died in full fellowship with, not a party to that compact. It is only went up to God for their success. There the partp which had brought about sethe agent entrusted with the general business of administering the provision part of true Chr stians, on the earnest erate abilities, a fluent speaker, and of the compact All the measures un God loving, good work doing disciples posessed of agreeable social qualidertaken by this Congress are matters of the meek and lowly, Jesus, that the utterly beyond its legal reach. They so-called Christian Church has fallen and Advertisements Leaded, or inserted under the head of Special Notices, and Double column' Advertisements, will be charged 50 percent, in addition to the abvoc Will. Weed had taken her from all fithy back alley; and there without a of horrors, our Federal system is in the country would be happier and to day, and see the manifestations of these to a strange city, where she had word. Will Weed suddenly felt himouly him besides a month old baby, self seized and bound to a spot, with a country and the frugal industries of and in a measure deserted her Out rope the rascal had hid in his bosom. The shock partially sebered him and getting rich, as they fancy, by traffic voting for President, was intered to to the church prays God to bless; and home to dinner; eating as though life depended on speed, and out again for the evening. At twelve or so, home in an odd mood quite incomprehensible so Mrs Weed, and in the morning late, headache and cross—he who, when he proposed, based his offer upon the the proposed, and out again for the total accomplished, the proposed and out again for a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to that now stores us in the face has Will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in the head weeth in his triump; put his mouth a very simple origin, palpable enough will the Democratic party submit to the head weeth in his close to the head weeth in the

Bates of Adversing

One square, six months, el

One Minus, one week

Each subsequent inscrition less than three months.
One square, three mouths, changes—

Yearly advertisements three squares one year.
Yearly advertisements four squares 1

Susiness cards, five lines or ines, one Administrators, Executors and Guar-dian Notices, Atkinson, the Boston Broker now Senator, was formerly a resident of this place : he was a vagabond, be was Washington and demanded a commiss. ion, and received one as second lieuten.

Sudden Death of the Hon Howell Cobb.

Howell Cobb died at the Fifth Avenue Hotel at half-past 10 o'clock yeserday morning, in the fifty fourth year. of his age He was born in Jefferson graduated at Franklin College, Athens, Georgia, in 1834, and two -years later was admitted to the Georgia bar, where he soon obtained an extensive practice. In 1842, having for several years previous held the office of Solicitor Generat of the Western Circuit, he was elcoit will vary the result. I assume that red a Democratic member of the Twenty eighth Congress, and by three succ-ssive re-elections he sat until 1851. officiating as speaker of the Thirty first Congress, In 1850, during the excite-He has received six per cent. in gold ment occasioned by the debates on the admission of California, he took strong ground in favor of the compromise which, reduced to currency, is twelve measures introduced by Mr. Clay, and hundred and sixty thousand dollars by his influence with Southern members did much to secure their passage. In 1851 he ran for Governor of Georgia That amounts to six hundred and thir on the compromise or Union platform, ty thousand dollars. And now he of 1850, as opposed to that of the Southern Rigts rariy and was elected dollars for his original five, which, ad by a majority exceeding that ever given ded all together, makes nine million or a political candidate in Georgia — eight hundred and ninety thousand In 1854, he was again elected to Cond llurs, which he wants you to pay him gress, and continued to represent Georfor his original five million debt again t cia, in that body until the accession of Mr. duchanan in 1857, by whom he

> he was elected a member of the rebe February, was chosen to be its presidhis position to accept a commission of Brigadier General in the rebel army, which he held until the surrender to. Gen Wilson at Macon, Georgia, in April, 1865 His military career was wholly without mark. He never held a first rate command, nor did be show. any special capacity for the profession of arms. Since the close of the war he has held no official position, having in tact been excluded from holding office. by the Reconstructiona acts of Congress; but to the best of his ability he opposed those acts on public and private occa-

The deceased had stopped at the foot of the main staircase, leading from the office of the hotel, to converse with Bishop Beckwith, of georgia, and Colwas discussing religious subjects with the Bishop, and turned to address some down on the stairs He instantly bcthe reception room, where he expired

No yoter should forget that if he votes the Radical ticket, he votes.

No voter should forget that if Meanwhile, his companied had led ed and miserable people of the Old execute the edic's of Congress !- for note of their leaders there; cast your whites and blacks the Presidency him from the decent streets into a World; and finally, to cap the climax if they were to get themselves executed, eye on the crushed and ruined South and the Halls of Congress.